

Bargaining Sessions #9 and #10

April 11-12, 2023

The union and Company met for the 9th and 10th bargaining sessions on April 11 and 12th. The parties discussed several open and new proposals and reached the first tentative agreement of negotiations – post-game credits. The next bargaining session was scheduled for the end of May, and both parties have agreed to reschedule the next session. The new date will be announced once confirmed.
